RAIN BRINGS BIG DROP IN TEMPERATURE

Friday evening thundershowers brought a welcome quarter inch of rain and sent temperatures nosediving from a new high for this year of 91 degrees registered here Friday afternoon. A 43-degree drop sent the mercury down to 48 degrees by 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Friday's high reading of 91 degrees made it the hottest May 10 here since 1948 when a maximum of 92 degrees was recorded. Last year in May the temperature climbed as high as 94 degrees on May 20.

The May heat record was set at 99 degrees here on May 19, 1911. Readings in the 90's are not unusual for this month.

REPORT HAIL NEARBY

Hot spring temperatures beat a hasty retreat today as cold weather, snow, hail, storms and brisk winds belabored many parts of the country, the Associated Press said.

In the northeast, snow was reported from northern New York eastward over the New England area. A five-inch snowfall was reported in Rumford, Maine, in a six-hour period. Isolated thundershowers which developed over Oklahoma dropped more than an inch of hail in the Taft area.

Lightning caused scattered damage in Massachusetts. Electrical transformers were struck, blacking out parts of Arlington Center and Lynnfield, suburbs of Boston. Some 200 homes were without power in Lynnfield.

DROP TO 30s

The Great Lakes region—which sweltered with temperatures in the low 90s this week—went for the overcast as the 30s prevailed. The northeastern section of the country had cold, cloudy and wet weather. Severe thundershowers prevailed over southeastern Missouri, in all of Kentucky, parts of Virginia and in some parts of Pennsylvania.

Warm temperatures covered the southern third of the nation. Mostly cloudy skies with widespread precipitation covered the western fourth of the country.

The South Atlantic Coast region westward to the Southern Plateau had mostly fair to partly cloudy skies with little change in temperatures. Clear skies covered the North Atlantic Coast and the Middle Atlantic states westward to the Midwest and northern Plains were cloudy.

DEADLINE ON MONDAY FOR WHEAT VOTE

Countians growing less than 15 acres of wheat must—if they wish to vote in the wheat referendum May 21—be registered for the election at the ASC office here by Monday, the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office reminded today.

Those farmers who have an allotment of less than 15 acres who do not sign by Monday will not be permitted to vote in the referendum.

Local officials noted that the advance sign up prior to the referendum "is needed to provide for an orderly and proper referendum, just as voters are required to register prior to voting for their county commissioners, governor, the President and other public officials." Plans call for establishment of 12 voting places throughout the county to make it easier for farmers to vote in the referendum. Usually only four voting places were provided.

In prior referendums those whose allotments were less than 15 acres were prohibited from voting — unless they planned to seek a higher allotment.

Under the plan for this year all growers of 15 acres or less may sign for the referendum and become allotment growers. If quotas are approved the smaller growers will become eligible to qualify for price supports, certificates and payments for diverting wheat acreage to soil-conserving uses.

POLICE CHECK 3 ACCIDENTS

Borough police investigated three accidents Friday afternoon within four hours.

The Cadillac convertible Mrs. Ayre was driving was damaged about the left rear fender and wheel.

At 2:35 o'clock a Gettysburg Times delivery wagon, driven by John Hemler, who parked in front of the Varsity Diner, was struck by a Leshor Brothers, Lebanon, semitrailer truck causing slight damage to the left door of the station wagon.

William Conrad, Saint Marys, Pa., was arrested by borough police at 5:45 o'clock for making an improper pass at South and Baltimore St.

EX-MANAGER OF STORE HERE SENT TO JAIL

Wallace D. Kutz Sr., 56, Hanover, formerly manager of the former Gettysburg Furniture Center, was sentenced to from 11 to 23 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse by the Adams County court this morning for fraudulent conversion of assets of the store.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teefer said the particular charge before the court was the conversion of $463.32 of the furniture center's money to his own use. He said that examination of the books by Accountant Edwin Minter showed so far $9,030.99 to have been fraudulently converted.

Kutz told the court that while he pleaded guilty to the charge he did not believe he had converted that much. The accountant's figures showed the conversions took place over a period of nine months.

Glenn L. Bream, owner of the store, told the court that during the last two years of the three years that Kutz was manager the Hanover man had made $150 a week.

JAIL LIKE COLLEGE

Victor Smith, 67, York, was sentenced to from three to six months in the workhouse and ordered to pay the costs and make restitution of all of the bad checks he had passed in Adams County. Smith told the court, "I went easy on this county. York County got 42 bad checks and Lancaster 30 some." Smith said he had spent 22 years of his life in jail and that "jails don't help rehabilitate me. I'll come to the idea and make up my mind one of these days to quit passing checks."

In reply to the court's question as to which jail he liked best, Smith said: "They are all about the same and there have been big changes from the old days. Why Graterford (Eastern Penitentiary) is just like a college."

COUNTY FINED

Kurvin Kenneth Krout, East Berlin, was fined $150 for illegal sale of beer and ordered to pay the costs. The court ordered the confiscation of 265 bottles of beer seized by liquor control agent John H. Cook, at the East Berlin Fire Co., where Cook alleged he had bought two bottles of beer which was served him by Krout.

Ronald Francis Winarski, Nanticoke, was sentenced to from 30 days to one year, starting April 11, and ordered to pay the costs on an involuntary manslaughter charge to which he had pleaded guilty.

The 19-year-old youth had been the driver November 24 of a pickup truck, stolen from Luzerne County, which collided with a tree near Table Rock fatally injuring a passenger in the vehicle, John J. Hanlon, Nanticoke. Winarski told the court he had been sentenced from four to eight months in Luzerne County for stealing the truck and that he had been sent here by the Luzerne County Court for sentence by the local court.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

The court said that it was noting the Luzerne sentence in imposing the sentence here. As a result he will be returned to Luzerne County to finish the sentence there. He was given three months to pay the local costs.

Elmer R. Bittle, New Oxford R. 2, charged with driving while driving suspension, was given a suspended sentence on condition he pay $200 for the use of the county and the costs.

Michael George Dombroski, Bellview, was also given a suspended sentence on a charge of driving during suspension and ordered to pay $200 for the use of the county and the costs.

Red To Die For Spying; Briton Gets Eight Years

By PRESTON GROVER
MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet military tribunal today sentenced former Soviet official Oleg Penkovsky to death for espionage. His British codefendant, Greville Wynne, got an eight-year prison term.

The two were convicted by a military court after a five-day trial.

The verdict and sentence were read by the court president, Lt. Gen. Viktor Borisoglebsky.

Wynne's sentence was broken down to consist of three years in prison and the remainder in a corrective labor camp.

Penkovsky was stripped of all his medals, colonel's rank and World War II decorations.

The crowd broke into 30 seconds of applause as the sentences were read.

Wynne, a British businessman for whom the prosecution had asked a 10-year term, had asked the court for clemency, saying it was the 11th birthday of his son, Andrew.

"It will be such a shock for my little boy," Wynne told the three-judge military tribunal, "that I am not with him to wish him many happy returns."

"I ask you to remember my son, my wife and my aged father. I very much want my aged father to see me, but in England."

Wynne added in concluding his 10-minute plea for mercy behind closed doors.

The prosecution Friday demanded 10 years in prison for Wynne and execution for Penkovsky, also charged with passing Soviet secrets to Washington and London Both are 44.

The court agreed to hear 11th-hour appeals from the pair before handing down the verdicts.

The public was barred from the courtroom but Wynne's words were reported to Western newsmen later by the businessman's Soviet lawyer, Nikolai Borovik.

LBJ TO FLY TO GETTYSBURG ON MAY 30; WILL DELAY PARADE

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will arrive by helicopter to speak at the May 30 exercises, the Memorial Day committee announced today.

Because of participation in a Washington, D. C., program earlier that day, the Vice President will fly here, landing shortly before the program begins.

Because of his desire to see the parade, "especially the school children," a special reviewing stand will be established on Baltimore St. near the entrance to the National Cemetery, where the Vice President will watch the parade as it arrives there to enter the cemetery. He will be accompanied by his military aide, Col. William F. Jackson.

TO DELAY PARADE

Upon his arrival at the reviewing stand he will be greeted by a 19-gun salute fired by the local National Guard Howitzer Battery which will mount its guns on E. Cemetery Hill, probably in the same spot used last year to fire the salute for Governor Lawrence.

Because of the late arrival of the Vice President the parade will move at 2:15 o'clock May 30 instead of the usual 2 o'clock start-up time

MECO ASKS PUC TO ALLOW RATE CUT ON HEATING

Metropolitan Edison Company filed a request with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to cut residential rates by $425,000 annually for electric water heating customers.

It is proposed that the new rates will become effective July 10. In announcing the rates reduction, W. R. Snyder, Metropolitan Edison Company's president, pointed out this was possible because of the increased use of electric water heating. He noted that the growing use of automatic laundry equipment and dishwashers in today's homes as well as multiple bathrooms and the general trend toward larger families has increased the demand for automatic hot water service.

The new rate provides a maximum of 660 kilowatt hours per month at 1 cent each for electric water heating customers. After the first 100 kilowatt hours per month at the present rate, the next 330 are billed at one cent. In addition, half of the kilowatt hours per month between a total use of 660 and 1,321 kilowatt hours will also be billed at one cent each.

ONE-CENT RATE

Mr. Snyder noted that this will mean that most electric water heating customers will be receiving half or more of their total at the low one-cent rate.

Another important feature of the new rate is that it is applicable to the new compact, quick-recovery water heater. Because these are considerably smaller in size than the standard storage type water heater, they are less costly and are easily installed in convenient locations close to the point of the most frequent hot water use.

All of MECO's 65,000 residential water heating customers are eligible for this new rate. Immediately 56,000 of these customers will get a reduction varying from a small amount to as much as $30 per year depending upon their consumption. The others will receive the benefits of this new rate as their consumption increases.

HOME HEATING TOO

Another feature of the new proposal will be introduction of a block of 330 kilowatt hours per month at one cent into the electric home heating rate. This will constitute a saving of as much as $23.76 a year for each home heating customer.

Mr. Snyder concluded his announcement by stating that no customer will receive any increase rates. Customers who have questions or need other information are asked to contact any company of choice.

ASTRONAUT IN "READY ROOM" FOR BIG TREK

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Astronaut L. Gordon Cooper Jr. began his final 72-hour preparation today for his scheduled rendezvous with the stars next Tuesday.

He moved into the pilots' "ready room" at Cape Canaveral's Hangar S, where five previous U.S. astronauts spent their last days before their flights. Cooper will not be confined to Hangar S, but will spend much of his time there resting and studying the flight plan.

He started a low-residue diet designed to reduce excretion during the planned 34-hour mission in which he is to circle the globe 22 times. The diet, laced with ample protein, includes meat, rice, eggs, sugar, fruit juices, coffee and tea.

REVIEW MISSION

On Cooper's agenda today were a series of meetings to review the mission and discuss status of the Atlas booster rocket, the "Faith 7" spacecraft, the worldwide tracking network, weather and other flight phases.

Doctors were to make several medical checks in the final three days to obtain baseline data for comparison with information to be radioed during the flight.

Man's ability to perform during prolonged exposure to space weightlessness is a main objective of the flight and medical information therefore will be of primary concern.

TEST FLIGHT

Sunday the tracking network will be given a thorough communications checkout, with the possibility that Cooper's backup pilot, Alan Shepard, will sit in the spacecraft to test the control systems.

The capsule was given a thorough wringing out Friday during a simulated countdown and launching exercise. Cooper was at the controls during the mock mission when hydrogen peroxide fuel was pumped into the fuel tanks and lines. He practiced with the manual steering system and reported everything worked fine.

REASSIGN COUNTEAN

A/3C James J. Irvin, Orrtanna R. 1, has been reassigned to Whiteman AFB, Mo., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for refrigeration specialists. Irvin received instruction in refrigeration and air conditioning as they apply to Air Force equipment and missile systems. He is a graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrytown, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Irvin, Gettysburg R. 3.

PROPERTY SOLD

Mrs. Esther B. Heisey, York Springs, sold a property on N. Main St., York Springs, for $3,500 at public sale Friday evening. It was bought by Morris Miller, near Mt. Holly Springs. Clair Slaybaugh was the auctioneer.

County Couple Married Here
On Thursday: Miss Anna Mae McClellan, 131 Carlisle St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McClellan, Ottomata R. 2, became the bride of Seaman apprentice David P. Swope, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Swope, Gettysburg R. 2, at a double-ring ceremony in St. James Lutheran Church Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor, was the officiating clergyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Swope are spending a five-day honeymoon in New York City. Mrs. Swope will travel with her husband who is in the Navy. He has been stationed at Bainbridge, Md., for the past three months and will be reassigned in the near future. Seaman Swope is a graduate of the Gettysburg High School.

Magazine Publishes Dr. Coleman Article: The April issue of The Torch official publication of the International Association of Torch Clubs, Inc., carried an article by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Military Park, entitled "John Brown's Ferry Raid." Dr. Coleman presented the subject originally to the Gettysburg Torch Club.

The association comprises 32 clubs in the United States and Canada which are formed for the discussion of serious questions. Membership is limited to professional men.

Miss McDannell Wins Wilson Scholarship: Miss Alice McDannell, a senior at Gettysburg High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David W. McDannell, Gettysburg R. 4, has been awarded a scholarship to Wilson College, Chambersburg. This scholarship is awarded on the basis of competitive examinations and the secondary school record. Miss McDannell also gained second place in the Legion essay examination.

During her high school career, she has been active in newspaper and yearbook work, Student Council, sports and dramatics. She has served as class president and is a member of the National Honor Society. Last summer she attended the National Student Council Convention in Evanston, Ill., as one of the two delegates from the Southern District of Pennsylvania.

Suggest Five-Cent Parking Meters In Town: All parking within Gettysburg's metered areas may be of the five-cent type this summer, if suggestions made at Monday night's meeting of the Borough Council by Councilman John Fox are carried out.

Mr. Fox, chairman of the Safety Committee, said that pennies are the cause of most of the troubles with the original parking meters installed in 1945.

He said plates could be obtained for 35 cents each which would "block off" the slot for placing pennies in the meters. Other plates on the meters would also have to be changed. He said it was the recommendation of the Safety Committee that this be done. The matter was tabled for action at the June meeting.

Mr. Fox said that bent pennies cause most the trouble with jammed meters and are the cause of most of the repair expense. Ninety per cent of the fines are paid by "penny customers" who overstay their 12 minutes, he added.

Mrs. Eisenhower Visits Farm Today For First Time: Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, "First Lady" of the Nation, visited her Gettysburg farm, near the water pumping station, at noon today for the first time since it was purchased by her husband, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, more than a year ago.

After a weekend visit at Penn State College with Dr. and Mrs. Milton Eisenhower, youngest brother of the President, Mrs. Eisenhower and her mother, Mrs.

Today's Talk

ENDOWMENT IN PURPOSE

It is common to hear of endowments left to a college or university, for some public benefit, but the public publications rarely mention that more important endowment that a great character leaves — to whomsoever may have the alertness and vision to partake of it. I refer to the endowment of purpose.

Men and women give their lives to the achievement of reforms, or improvements in the affairs of life. Sincerely, with small material compensation, they devote their lives to the service of others. There is a life of noble purpose. From this they gain the rich reward of personal satisfaction. But, in a larger sense, they endow countless lives with that purpose of theirs.

To live from day to day without purpose or aim is the same as to expect a ship at sea to reach its port without a rudder. Throughout the story of every notable and useful life runs "one increasing purpose." This is that life's gift to the world.

Just think of the lives that Gladstone, Washington, Lincoln, Lee, Edison, and an endless number such as they, have endowed. Or go far back to Jesus, to Montaigne, and to that good and great emperor, Marcus Aurelius. Billions in mere money could not match the endowment in purpose that these lives inspired.

If a father is able to endow his son or daughter with a definite purpose in life, he has achieved more than anything he might leave as an inheritance.

If a man's aim and purpose are kept sincere and secure within his heart, there is not a single force of failure that can faze him. Like the car, he will always land upon his feet, ready for any fray.

What a tribute to any man to say: "He endowed me with purpose!"

Just Folks

CONTENTMENT

Give me to look at life and be contented with my share,
To love my spreading maple tree,
The robins nesting there;
To find within my roses few
All that a million blooms could do.

Make me content with what is mine
And put my heart at ease,
I have in every plant and vine
All that a rich man sees;
Not many tulips bloomed this spring,
But each one was a lovely thing!

Teach me to value what I own
And let me clearly see
The charm is every petal blown
Upon the breeze to me;
The laughter here as sweetly rings
As in the palaces of kings.

Not in excess of luxuries lie
The happiness men crave,
The rose that loves the dew would die
If deluged by a wave;
Teach me this simple truth to know
Past peace of mind we cannot go.

Protected, 1963, by The George Mathews Adams Service

John S. Doud, drove to Gettysburg this morning accompanied by Secret Service men. They drove directly to the Eisenhower farm where they were met by General and Mrs. Arthur S. Nevins, personal friends of the Eisenhowers.

At Penn State, Mrs. Eisenhower was one of five judges to select a college "Queen" Monday evening and she then crowned the winner.

Mrs. Eisenhower had never had an opportunity to visit the 189-acre farm, located near the site of her husband's headquarters when he was in command of Camp Colt, on the Battlefield.

Donald R. Miller, chairman of the York Springs cancer fund drive, announced the following persons as solicitors: Mrs. Dale Williams, Mrs. Gilbert Guise, Mrs. Clair Trostle, Mrs. Lovina Hoff, Mrs. Harry Mumper. Persons who have been missed and wish to make their contribution are asked to contact any of the above named persons.

Mrs. Elmer Coulson and Ruth Meyers were with the homemakers from Adams County who made the bus trip to Washington's Crossing State Park, Bowman's Hill and Tower, New Hope, where they took the canal barge trip.

LONDON (AP) — A cross-the-country local election defeat made the future look blacker than ever today for Prime Minister Macmillan's Conservative party.

The government party lost heavily Thursday in council elections in 400 boroughs in England and Wales. The Conservatives had a net loss of 550 seats. The Labor party had a net gain of 543 and the Liberals of 86.

Local elections are considered generally unreliable indicators of national political feelings. But the Conservatives' national landslide in 1959 was foreshadowed to some extent in local elections five months before when Macmillan's party gained 181 seats and the Laborites lost 223.

Macmillan must call another national election before October 1964.

NEXT 2 WEEKS SEEN CRITICAL FOR DUVALIER

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The next two weeks likely will tell whether Dictator-President Francois Duvalier will ride out a gathering storm which could plunge impoverished Haiti into terrifying violence.

The outwardly calm atmosphere reported in the Haitian capital of Port au Prince may be highly deceptive. As recently as three nights ago there was an outbreak of rifle fire outside the capital in the same area where a pitched battle took place April 30.

Duvalier is feeling the heat of opposition to his regime. A man who once was one of his top lieutenants, who whipped together his army of Tonton Macoute (boogymen) goons and later his armed militia, now is out to kill the 55-year-old president.

DEFINITE THREAT
The man is Clement Barbot. Duvalier once had him in prison but released him. He is still at large and widely regarded as a definite threat to the dictator.

Most people in Port au Prince probably are unaware of the shootings outside the city. A violent clash took place April 30 in the Martissant suburb when a truckload of Duvalier's militia blundered into a Barbot stronghold, according to reports trickling through to neighboring Santo Domingo.

It is assumed the forces clashing with Duvalier's men are commanded by Barbot.

TWO KEY DATES
The key dates for Duvalier and his opponents are May 15 and May 22.

May 15 is the date when, under the constitution, Duvalier would have stepped down had he not maneuvered to proclaim himself re-elected two years ago for a six-year term. May 22 is the anniversary of his inauguration. He is reported superstitious about the number 22.

Duvalier's future is a critical matter for the Dominican Republic, whose first democratically elected president in three decades is facing tough inherited problems. President Juan Bosch has troops stationed at the Haitian-Dominican frontier. But nobody in Santo Domingo conversant with the crisis seems to believe that Bosch will order an invasion of Haiti—or ever intended to do so.

NO DIRECT PRESSURE
Apparently no direct U.S. pressure was applied against the Dominican government to head off an invasion. It is likely the U.S.

government did no more than inform Bosch that Washington's policy is aimed firmly at keeping peace in the Caribbean and encourage him to place the dispute before the Organization of American States.

Critical issues between Haiti and the Dominican Republic include safe conduct out of Haiti for Duvalier opponents who took asylum in the Dominican Embassy in Port au Prince, the presence in Haiti of remnants of the Trujillo regime and Bosch's charge that a plot against his life was hatched in Haiti with assistance from former members of Trujillo's secret police.

Critical issues between Haiti and the Dominican Republic include safe conduct out of Haiti for Duvalier opponents who took asylum in the Dominican Embassy in Port au Prince, the presence in Haiti of remnants of the Trujillo regime and Bosch's charge that a plot against his life was hatched in Haiti with assistance from former members of Trujillo's secret police.

KENNEDY ASKS REPORTERS TO KEEP OFF LAWN

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is perhaps the proudest gentleman gardener in Washington—and he doesn't like to see his new bluegrass lawn get unnecessary wear and tear.

The President delights in the blooming trees and colorful flowers arrayed around a quarter-acre plot just outside his White House office.

Known as the rose garden since it was established in 1913 by the first Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, this secluded beauty spot was completely redesigned a year ago at Kennedy's direction.

TRANSPLANTS BULBS
Two horticulturists and four gardeners from the National Park Service transplanted hundreds of blooming plants and bulbs with changes of the season so the garden is a rainbow of blossoms from April to November.

The flowers, bordered by English boxwood and holly hedges, surround a weed-free lawn of merion bluegrass.

To protect the grass during its first year, large green boards were placed over the sprouting blades whenever Kennedy went into the garden to receive groups too large to be accommodated in his office.

But the President's sense of the aesthetic was offended by the lumber and, last week, he ordered the boards removed to storage—now that the lawn is well established.

BARE PATH
Still, there is a problem with the grass. The entrance used by visitors to the garden is a grassy walkway through a break in the surrounding hedge. And the tramping of many feet has worn the grass down to the sod at this point.

Kennedy noted the bare spots this week and took steps to curb the wear and tear. He ordered newsmen covering ceremonies in the garden to enter via the same concrete steps he uses, thus avoiding the footpath.

The President walks alongside the garden several times a day, and, during working hours, takes an occasional breather on the colonnaded portico linking his office and the White House living quarters.

After 15 seasons in the National League, Richie Ashburn retired this season with a .308 career average.

WHITE SOX WIN 5TH STRAIGHT TO LEAD LOOP

By JIM BECKER

The Chicago White Sox took only 112 minutes Friday night to polish off the Los Angeles Angels 2-0, with Juan Pizarro pitching a three-hitter and driving in both runs, one with a homer.

That was one minute longer than the Sox took the night before to trim the New York Yankees by the same score. They have now won five straight games during which they have allowed the opposition five runs, and are a full game in front in the American League.

The Baltimore Orioles kept pace in second place by whipping the Yankees 6-3. It was the fourth straight loss for the world champions.

TIGERS BEAT TRIBE

Phil Regan threw a three-hitter for the Detroit Tigers who bombed the Cleveland Indians 14-0, and Camilo Pascua did the same job for the Minnesota Twins over the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0. The Boston Red Sox dropped the Washington Senators 6-3.

Pizarro, the 26-year-old southpaw, struck out six Angels and walked only one as he gained his second victory. He homered in the third inning and batted home the insurance run in the fifth with a single, after catcher J. C. Martin had tripped.

Ken McBride, who brought a string of 29 scoreless innings against Chicago into the game and had never lost to his old Sox mates, was the loser.

ORIOLES RALLY

Luis Aparicio and Al Smith slugged solo homers off Yankee starter Whitey Ford, and Baltimore starter Mike McCormick was nursing a two-run lead when his arm stiffened in the eighth inning. Relief pitcher Dick Hall came just before rain had held up play for 35 minutes, and eventually gave up a two-run single to Clete Boyer that tied the score.

The Orioles came right back with three runs off Yankee reliever Hal Reniff in the eighth, on two walks, Jackie Brandt's run-producing double and John Orsino's two-run single.

Dick McAuliffe drove in six runs for the Tigers, four on a grand slam homer, and Rocky Colavito and Regan also homered. It was Regan's first in the majors. The Tiger right-hander working in 36-degree weather, struck out eight.

PASCUAL WINS AGAIN

Pascual, who is the only thing keeping the cellar Twins from dropping completely out of sight, pitched his fourth straight complete game. It was the A's fifth straight defeat, and only the third triumph for the Twins in their last 10—all of them by Pascual.

Rookie Jay Ward doubled home both runs for the Twins in the second inning, after Jimmie Hall doubled and Bernie Allen walked. Orlando Pena, who also allowed only three hits in the seven innings he worked, was the loser.

Frank Malzone, shifted to the cleanup spot in the Red Sox batting order, responded with three hits, including a two-run double that broke a 3-2 tie against the Senators in the eighth. Washington's Tom Cheney suffered his second loss against four victories although he pitched a three-hitter and struck out 11 in the 7-13 in nings he worked.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunder, icy rain and the red hot relieving of Jim Burton were too much for the Springfield Giants Friday night as the York White Roses edged the Eastern League leaders 4-3 at Springfield.

It was third place York's only win in a five game series with Springfield but it dropped the Giants into a tie for first place with Elmira, whose game with Reading was rained out in the top of the fourth. Elmira was leading 4-3.

In the other games Friday night Binghamton cut off two late Charleston rallies and used two big innings of their own to squeeze out a 7-6 decision behind the shaky pitching of lefty Bill Landis. Landis went the route to post his first win of the season against two losses. Sonny Sieffert was the loser. Charleston outfielder Tony Curry got a two-run homer and two doubles.

Called in 7th

At Springfield, Burton relieved Bob Carlson with two runs in and nobody out in the first. He gave up three hits, struck out nine and walked two before the game was called in the seventh because of rain.

Tommy Arruda, who went into the game with an earned run average of zero over 29 innings was scored on in the first, left in the second and took the loss, his first against three wins.

Biglerville High School lost a Blue Mountain Baseball League game to Susquehanna 2-0 Friday at Biglerville as the Canners were held to five scattered hits by Little and offered no serious scoring threat.

Little and Bob Bream of Biglerville engaged in a scoreless pitching duel until the sixth, when Ashenfelter walked, was sacrificed by Cooper, stole third base and came home on Little's fly to the outfield.

Susquehanna added an insurance run in the seventh. Kocis walked and advanced on Deaven's bunt sacrifice. A balk permitted Kocis to move to third base and brought in Bill Slaybaugh as a relief hurler. Fortenbaugh then singled Kocis across.

The Canners, 5-5-1, meet Big Spring and East Pennsboro at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, respectively.

INDIANS MISS PLANE; FINED

DETROIT (AP)—The Cleveland Indians have become a vanishing breed and Manager Birdie Tebbets believes smoke signals would do more for togetherness on his club than the hotel phone system.

For the second time in a week, the Indians made a trip Friday minus two players. Pitcher Mudcat Grant and outfielder Ellis Burton missed the team plane from Washington to Detroit.

They rejoined the club later, flying here at their own expense, and were given fines believed to be $150.

"The fines were automatic," said Tebbets.

"They were victims of a new era in phones. The new phone system in our hotel wasn't connected directly to the switchboard, but works on a dial system. So when a phone is off the hook, nobody downstairs knows it."

Burton and outfielder Gene Green missed the Indians' plane from Los Angeles to Washington earlier in the week and were fined a reported $150.

Green jumped the club temporarily after the Indians didn't trade him to the Los Angeles Angels. He was tired of his pinch-hitting role with Cleveland, but later relented after a meeting in Washington.

Tennis Tourney In Semifinals

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—The Middle Atlantic Conference tennis championships moved into the semifinals today with one upset already recorded.

In the first round Friday, Mike Campbell, of Lafayette, upset fourth-seeded Bill Cartier of Moravian, 6-2, 6-3, 8-6.

In the only other match to go three sets, Jon Plakwas and Lance Knauth, of Franklin and Marshall, defeated Dave Pao and Kevin Cornell, of Swarthmore, 1-6, 6-3, 6-3, in an opening round doubles match.

Pao appeared in three matches Friday. Second-seeded in the singles, he beat Whit Smith of Dickinson, 6-2, 6-3, in an earlier doubles match. Pao and Cornell defeated Cartier and John Landis, of Moravian 7-5, 6-0.

FROSH EDGE BULLIS PREP

The clutch hitting of Jim Ward and Frank Wolfgang and fine relief pitching of By Crammer paced the Gettysburg College Freshman baseball team to a thrilling 9-0 win over Bullis Prep here Friday afternoon.

Crammer started things off when he came in for Ed Hildebrand in the sixth inning to stop a rally. In his three and two-thirds innings, Crammer allowed two hits, struck out two and walked one. He received credit for the win, his second in as many decisions.

In the bottom of the sixth, shortstop Jim Ward put the Little Bulls back in the game with a tremendous two-run homer to deep left field. The clout knotted the count at 8-8.

Gettysburg pushed its winning run across in the bottom of the eighth. Crammer led off with his second hit of the afternoon, and went to second on an infield miscue. With two outs, Wolfgang rapped a line single to left-center, driving in Crammer.

Wolfgang topped the Little Bulls with a trio of safeties for five at bats. Ward accounted for four RBI's and two runs scored. Dick Absher paced Bullis with a pair of safeties. Joe Krol went the distance for the visitors and is charged with his third loss compared to three wins. "Chuck" Moyses started for the Bullis Frosh with Ed Hildebrand coming on in the fifth before needing help from Crammer in the sixth.

Gettysburg closes out its short season, winning both games. Bullis is 5-5 on the season.

My Qualifications for COUNTY COMMISSIONER

One hesitates to publicly relate details of one's life, but the people of Adams County before choosing their county officials have a right to know what each candidate has done previously in order to determine whether or not he will make a capable public official.

Thus I am printing a brief history of my activities to let the public know who I am and what I have done in order to permit you, the voter, to determine whether I would make a proper commissioner to run the million-dollar-a-year business that is our county government.

HERE, FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION, IS MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY:

Born in Franklin Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania on August 21, 1918, and have been a lifelong resident of Adams County.

Received my education in our local schools and the United States Army.

As a boy I spent the summer months working for the fruitgrowers and the local nurserymen.

I entered the service of my country on June 4, 1941, and spent the first year of service here in the States. During this first year I went from Private to Master Sergeant, one year to the date. On June 12, 1942, I left the states for England, spending 27 months in England as an instructor in the Officer Candidate School. I was then transferred to the military government as a liaison officer going from one unit to another checking all transportation; as well as taking personnel from division headquarters to the smaller units in Belgium, Holland and France.

Returning from Europe to the United States as a Chief Warrant Officer, I was finally discharged from the U. S. Army, November 19, 1945. I married Ruth A. Wentz, a former public school teacher, and now am the father of four daughters and one son.

My brother and I started in the Nursery business August 6, 1946, each of us depositing $50.00 and using my father's automobile, wheelbarrow, a rake, shovel, or whatever tools necessary to do the small jobs that we had picked up in the early days of our business. From 1947, our first full year of operations, to 1956, a span of nine years, our business increased nine fold with employment being furnished to eight additional local taxpayers. This is personal but a record of which I am very proud.

I am a member of Flohr's Lutheran Church and have served on the Church Council as Trustee and Treasurer; also a member of the Cashtown Lions Club, serving as second vice president; a member of the Adams County Farmers Association, the Adams County Fruitgrowers Association, the Adams County Fish and Game Association, the American Legion. I served on the Franklin Township Consolidated School Board as a member and President.

I have served our local Fire Company as Treasurer and Trustee and on a Building Committee where we spent $50,000.00 and paid this building off in seven years. Speaking of Fire Companies I have also served our Adams County Firemen's Association as President. I have served as President of the Southeastern Firemen's Association which includes eight counties and I am now serving on the Executive Board.

As mentioned earlier, I have been in the Nursery business in Adams County for nearly 17 years. After being in the nursery business for two years, one is qualified to become a member of the Pennsylvania State Nurserymen's Association and our business was given an invitation to join. By taking part in their activities and attending their meetings regularly, I was approached by a nominating committee as a candidate due to my active participation in the association to serve on the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania State Nurserymen's Association. I was elected to serve one year of an unexpired term and then was re-elected to a three-year term, and I am now serving my third year.

"I built the fit mobile television truck, you know, and used it extensively for the old 'On the Go.' In fact I think I hold the record for remote television originations."

We'd caught up with Jack, who'd touched down briefly between college hops to transact business in New York) over breakfast at the Savoy-Hilton. "If my wife were here I wouldn't have to be making this decision myself," he muttered to the menu before bracing himself to order grapefruit, chipped beef on toast and "skinny milk," as he calls skim milk. Trying to hold down this weight? Not at all, he just loves skim milk. Always did. "For cereal I sometimes pour on ordinary milk. To me that tastes rich and creamy," he commented. Does his wife, the former Barbara Hughes, ever travel around with him? Well not nowadays. With three small children (Michael, five years old; Dennis, three, and Laura, one) and a fourth expected in October she's sticking pretty close to the couple's Brentwood Calif., home.

GOOD INTERVIEWER

Jack, I had heard from the West Coast, has developed quite a reputation for himself as a radio interviewer: he had a daily program on the ABC-West Network. What does this "Hootenanny" travel do to that?" "As I told you," he smiled, "I believe in mobility." He pointed to the tan leather case on chair beside him. "Eight pounds of tape recorder of such fidelity that I even caught the comments of a landing parachutist with it. I do programs wherever I go."

"What's this difference of opinion between you and your father on what makes a good show?"

"It's pretty much my mobility concept again. Dad finds a stage and audience stimulating. He feels it's more spontaneous. I've been developing my style along different lines. You see I feel the person being interviewed is most himself in his own environment. For example if I'm interviewing a man who's landed on Skid Row because of alcohol, I go see him farms, management services, many more.

"I'm a business man two-thirds of the time, you see," he clarified "and a show business personality one-third of the time. The yardsticks are different. Business is both tangible and creative; I love it. In show business, on the other hand, your own efforts are not necessarily the molders of your future. I consider myself most fortunate to be able to combine the 'two.'"

on Skid Row. Instantly I feel no subject need be taboo if its handled with taste. I think people have come to expect more depth. It makes things more interesting for viewers and listeners.

"What it boils down to is that Dad and I are after different things. His is the performer's point of view. It's right for him."

ject, "I'd say a lot of it is being absorbed into folk music but now they're singing words you can understand. The beat is there, though."

What about "authentic" versus "commercial?" Being still a new-

"And then I learned it's highly infectious," said Jack Linkletter who was speaking not of some new virulent virus but of folk music. He had just finished exclaiming he'd been signed as emcee of ABC-TV's Saturday night "Hootenanny" (8:30 p.m.) partly because of his age (25) and partly because he wasn't a "folknik." The famous Art's suave dearest son elaborated further. "The producers felt I would try to find out what it's all about and then translate it — in terms they'll understand — to viewers, who like myself, are newcomers to folk music. To the real insiders, you see, it's a small world of almost religious dedication. My role is not that of a molder but rather that of an interpreter."

"Before I started doing the show, I knew by reputation only a few folk performers. I was no buff then; but I certainly am now.

"Theodore Bikel and I stopped by 'The Bitter End' in Greenwich Village last night. Everybody joining in. You should have seen the crowd there go for the Smothers Brothers." The Limelighters, he added, were on hand, too. All of them have appeared on "Hootenanny;" in fact all that was lacking was a college campus. (Schools visited by Jack and name guests at last reports included the University of West Virginia, George Washington University, Penn State Brown, Michigan and Rutgers.)

SEEKS NIGHT SHOW

"Why did I sign for the show? Well for one thing I give about a third of my time to broadcasting and I've been looking for a nighttime show. My three previous series were daytime. Then, too, I'm still going to college myself. I'm working for my master's degree in business education at UCLA. But most important of all, from my point of view, is the mobility of the show. Though my father and I disagree on this, mobility is a concept I believe in. I feel it is more meaningful for viewers.

URGES WHEAT FARMERS TO CAST BALLOT

Horace Frey, president of the Adams County Farmers' Association, today urged every Pennsylvania wheat grower to qualify to vote in the May 21 referendum and then vote his conviction.

"If this referendum carries, he will be affected whether he has signed up or not and he will be affected whether he has voted or not," Mr. Frey said.

"If a vote is opposed to the program, the only way he can show it is to vote against it and the only way he can vote is to sign up on his special form. This must be done by next Monday or he cannot vote at all. If a farm is a partnership affair, the wife, or partner, may vote too."

CITES THE ISSUES

Mr. Frey had this to say about the issue in the referendum on May 21: "If the 1964 wheat program is approved in the referendum, Pennsylvania farmers will be controlled even if they do not sign up to participate in the program. It therefore is to the farmers' interest to sign his registration to participate even though he is opposed to the program himself. A farmer with an allotment of less than 15 acres cannot vote in the referendum unless he signs his election blank and files it with his county ASC office by May 13.

"If the May 21 balloting places the wheat program in effect," Mr. Frey said, "This will happen in 1964: No one will be allowed to grow wheat without an allotment. Farmers will no longer be allowed to grow up to 15 acres without allotments as they have been doing; neither will they be allowed to grow 30 acres of wheat to feed their own livestock without an allotment. These small farm exemptions are terminated by the proposed 1964 program.

"The chief effect of defeat of the referendum is that the wheat support price would drop from about $2 to about $1.25 per bushel; but support prices are of little interest to the Pennsylvania farmer who already has a market for more of Pennsylvania soft wheat than we produce here and at a price which last year averaged $1.93 a bushel with more than $2 for premium wheat. Selling the whole crop at a price like that would be a great deal better than being compelled to sell a substantial portion of one's crop at $1.30."

Penn State's last losing football season came in 1938 when the Nittany Lions had a 3-4-1 record.

FARM CALENDAR

Protect Fruits—To control diseases on fruit apply sprays at intervals to give adequate protection. Allen Bauer, Penn State extension plant pathologist, announces that spray schedules for all types of fruit crops can be obtained from the county agent.

Get Sprayer Ready—Rainy spring days provide opportunities to get sprayers ready for use, say Penn State extension agricultural engineers. Replace worn nozzles, broken or damaged hoses and make other needed repairs. On a warm day calibrate the sprayer for accuracy.

Prevent Rabbit Damage—Cottontail rabbits like to feed on new growth in home gardens and flower beds. Robert Wingard, Penn State extension wildlife management specialist, says fencing with 1-inch mesh poultry wire 18 inches to 2 feet high protects plants, or chemical repellents may be used to make the plants distasteful to the bunnies.

Save Your Toes—The whirling knife-edged blade of a rotary lawn mower is vicious, warns Ralph Patterson, Penn State extension safety specialist. He suggests choosing a mower that is shielded will down toward the ground and treating it as you would a naked buzz saw. Be careful and save your toes!

Roses Need Pruning—When new shoots appear on roses, it is time to prune these plants. Remove old or dead wood to keep the plant young and vigorous, advises Lynn Smith, extension flower specialist at Penn State. Do not prune climbers and rambler roses until after they have bloomed or you will remove flower buds.

Countian Has Role In Exercise Abroad

Pfc. John T. Alexander Jr., Biglerville, took part in the recent exercise "Grand Slam II" with other members of the 77th Artillery in Germany.

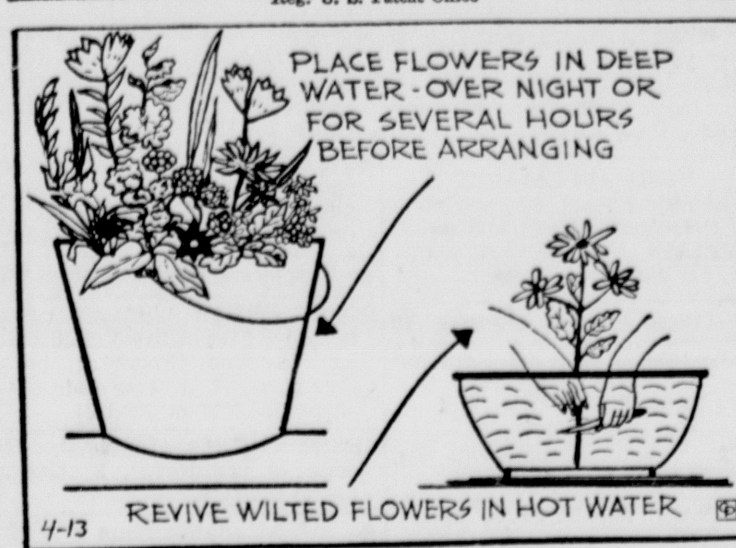

Elements of the Canadian, French and German armed forces also participated in the exercise which was designed to test plans and procedures of NATO forces assigned to central Europe.

Alexander, a finance clerk in Headquarters Battery of the artillery's 5th Battalion in Germany, entered the Army in July, 1962, completed basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga., and arrived overseas last March.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1961 graduate of Biglerville High School.

Michigan State and Michigan first played baseball as rivals in 1884. Michigan won that year 13-3.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Conditioning Cut Flowers

By EDNA HALLIDAY

When cutting flowers from the garden to arrange indoors, the best method is to take a container or bucket of water with you and immediately put the cut flowers into it.

Remove some of the lower foliage first. The foliage of zinnias, dahlias, stock, asters and marigolds will decay within a few hours.

As shown in the accompanying garden-graph, upon bringing the flowers indoors, place them in deep water almost up to their blooms. Do not crowd too many flowers together for fear of bruising their petals.

Place the flowers in a cool, dark place, out of drafts, for a few hours, or overnight. This conditions them and they will last much longer than flowers cut and arranged at once.

Two commercial preservatives, Floralife and Bloomlife, are available, which when put in the water prolong the life of most flowers. When used, it is not necessary to change the water in the container daily. Florists frequently enclose a package of one of these in the box of flowers.

Some arrangers add a little sugar or Clorox to the water. The Clorox discourages the growth of bacteria.

Flowers which have been out of water for some time, or flowers wilted prematurely, often can be revived, as shown, by placing them in hot water for half an hour (not boiling) and shortening the stems. Then put them in cool water.

Farm Price Index Above '62 Level

HARRISBURG—Prices received for farm products in mid-April were down 4 per cent from the mid-March level, according to the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service. Despite the decline, due largely to a seasonal drop in milk prices, the index remained above year earlier levels for the ninth consecutive month.

The index of prices received, a barometer of farm income, was 217 per cent of the 1910-1914 base compared with 225 on March 15 and 213 for mid-April last year. The index for crops was up 1 per cent from a month earlier and 13 per cent above April last year. For livestock and livestock products the index dropped five per cent from mid-March and two per cent from April, 1962.

Decline in egg and milk prices

GRAIN STOCKS BELOW 1962

HARRISBURG—Total stocks of all grain stored in on-farm positions in the state on April 1, totaled 41.9 million bushels, according to the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service.

This total was 25 per cent less than the amount on hand April 1, 1962, and 38 per cent below the January 1, 1963, total.

Total stocks of corn at 26.1 million bushels were the lowest since 1958. On-farm holdings totaling 22.1 million bushels dropped 29 per cent from a year ago and were also the lowest since 1958.

Oat stocks in all positions, on April 1, were 9.5 million bushels the lowest since 1953. The 19 per cent decrease of on-farm holdings offset the slight increase of off-farm stocks.

With the 1962 wheat crop the lowest on record, total stocks remained well below a year earlier, and the lowest on record. On farm holdings were 36 per cent below a year earlier, and also a record low.

The nation's grain stocks on April 1, 1963, were smaller with total stocks of feed grains and all wheat each 8 per cent less, and soybean holdings 3 per cent sharply influenced the over-all price drop. The average price received for milk in mid-April was estimated at $4.20 per hundred-weight or 40 cents below the mid-March average and 10 cents below April, 1962. The price received for eggs averaged 36 cents per dozen, five cents below a month earlier.

Issue Warning On Sprayed Pastures

The Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association today urged farmers not to pasture livestock less than a year ago. For the fed grains, corn stocks were 10 per cent less than a year earlier, sorghum holdings were 3 per cent smaller while oats stocks were practically the same. Stocks of all wheat were below last year and the smallest since 1958.

too soon after spraying grass crops against aphids and spittle bugs.

While the sprays used are not poisonous to livestock after 10 days or after washing by rain, serious trouble may arise when accidental pasturing occurs soon after spraying, the association pointed out.

Some of the symptoms of this type of poisoning include going off feed, incoordinate gait, muscular twitching, eye blinking and frothing at the mouth.
